

You Can Have My Twitter Profile When I Die

Melody: She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain

Lyrics: Lene Rachel Andersen / Nordic Bildung

You can have my Twitter profile when I die

You can have my Twitter profile when I die

I'll still be in heated clashes

They'll spread wider than my ashes

You can have my Twitter profile when I die

You can have my Quora profile when I die
You can have my Quora profile when I die
I'll still look as if I wonder
Though my head is six feet under
You can have my Quora profile when I die

You can have my Facebook profile when I die
You can have my Facebook profile when I die
I'll still be composing firm moods
Though I'm decomposing worm food
You can have my Facebook profile when I die

You can have my LinkedIn profile when I die
You can have my LinkedIn profile when I die
Not just will my will be clever
My last will will last forever
You can have my LinkedIn profile when I die

You can have my Tinder profile when I die
You can have my Tinder profile when I die
Though I said that I was scoring
You'll see I was really boring
You can have my Tinder profile when I die

You can Google what I googled when I die
You can Google what I googled when I die
Everything I started spelling
Will be really rather telling
You can Google what I googled when I die
